Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for Missouri: Fair; westerly winds; warmer in extreme northeast and extreme west portions; Thursday morning.

Cloudy weather prevails over the Lake Region and eastward. Light rain has fallen in New England, due to a storm central off the coast.

The temperature is rising slightly throughout the west and north, but has fallen somewhat in the cotton region. Killing frost is reported this morning from Charlotte, Memphis, Ft. Smith and Shreveport, and light frost from Nashville, Chattanooga, Little Rock and Vickburg.

It is not probable that the frost will extend further south than the Ohio River.

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for St. Louis: Fair; warmer.

LET'S spit and claw.—[Old Pretender.

LET'S grow taxes and get rich according to McKinley.

"THE duty on enameled wares is only 45 per cent ad valorem," writes the Baron. Is that all?

It is the Tennessee Hill, not the New York Hill, that is just now getting all the Republican attention.

If poor men like Gov. Fifer can give $50,000 to corrupt a German newspaper the country is indeed prosperous.

MR. DEPEW'S speech at English's Hall, Indianapolis, was "full of witty points." Did he make any jokes on the London tailors?

BRER QUAY has started in to purify the ballot again, and he isn't offering any rewards this year for the detection of repeaters.

If the Republicans win this year their victory will be the costliest in their history. Pretended Populists come as high as blocks of five.

The feline honeymoon seems to be over. Or perhaps the happy couple has been driven from the temple of truth by unsentimental bootjacks.

THE twenty farmer Republicans on horseback at Seymour, Ind., made an inspiring spectacle. More good Republicans should "line the cavalry."

THERE will probably not be any more bogus Republican telegrams about Judge Cooley's ballot. The Republican writers may as well resume their abuse of him.

WHEAT is very cheap, but Mr. McKinley has told us why. It is because of that duty of 25 cents a bushel imposed by the tariff of 1890. Protection cheapens products.

ROSWELL HORN will be more disgusted than ever with educated men, now that twenty-three of the Amherst College faculty have declared that they will vote for Grover Cleveland.

A REPUBLICAN organ says of the Wild Cat yell: "The gravity of this issue is just beginning to dawn on the country." This is fortunate because the country is tired laughing at the fun of it.

SENATOR HILL has forfeited the last vestige of Republican favor and must now depend entirely upon Democrats for commendation. He has openly praised Cleveland and his administration.

THOSE officials on the Texas border who have been getting $50 a head for Chinamen smuggled into the United States will be expected to put something handsome into the Republican campaign fund.

THAT Senator Hill realizes the position of himself and his friends in the present campaign is shown by the following utterance at the Tammany ratification meeting: "Those who, because of personal disappointment, or because candidates of the particular choice have not been nominated, would encourage the temporary departure of their party usually live to regret their action." The political shrewdness of Senator Hill has not deserted him and this means that Cleveland will get a majority in New York State.

WHEN Mr. Blaine becomes settled in Washington he will, no doubt, give to the correspondents the name of his Democratic pairer, but we need not expect to know who Mr. Dana's Republican pairer is until Mr. Dana returns from Europe.

EXCELLENT evidence was afforded in the monster Tammany demonstration last night that the braves are not only loyal to the party, but are enthusiastically working for its success in New York. It looks as if the task of Dave Martin and his slush fund to turn the Cleveland tide in the metropolis were hopeless.

He has always contended that protection raises wages and maintains them at a level higher than those prevailing in free trade countries. In this letter, which will be found in another column, he is reminded of the fact that England with an average tariff of 4½ per cent pays higher wages than Italy with a tariff of 20 per cent, or Russia with 34 per cent, or Mexico with 42 per cent, or Portugal with 37 per cent.

He was an opportunity for him to enlighten those wandering in darkness. But he cruelly ignored them, treated the inquiry with silent contempt. When his bill was pending in Congress the same question was asked him by the workingmen of his district, but he made no reply.

applied to the richest and most accessible natural resources are powerless as factors of national well being. The fallacy is one of the most impudent ever employed to bamboozle and cheat an unthinking people. But there are signs that it has run its course and will be laid away with other delusions which have cursed mankind.

WHY DIDN'T HE ANSWER?

The author of the present tariff law came to St. Louis to instruct the people concerning the operation of protective laws and their influence on wages. But he refused or neglected to answer a very pertinent inquiry addressed to him through an open letter placed in his hand as soon as he arrived at his hotel.

It is true that Mr. Blaine is going to devote himself to literary pursuits but there is no truth in the report that he has become a Roman Catholic.

MR. CARMICHAEL has endowed thirteen libraries in Scotland. His interest in campaign education in America is of the six figure order, however.

MAJ. MCKINLEY is right in his contention that taxes make wealth. The millions of the men who enjoy the benefit of taxes prove it. Of course these millions are taken from the earnings of other people, but that only proves that the other people are fools and that the Major and his protection friends know it.

THE Republicans now have a fine opportunity to eulogize the benevolence of Andrew Carnegie and to give voice to encumbrances upon his great work of establishing libraries, but not a man of them seems ever to have heard of our canny Scotch friend.

THE VOTE OF ST. LOUIS.

The vote of St. Louis for President increased from 42,925 in 1884 to 62,982 in 1888. The November election should show a similar increase of 20,000 votes over 1888.

The Recorder's books show 82,000 registered voters for this election and if every one of them is permitted to stand as honestly and properly registered, there will still be 20,000 unregistered voters in this city. If 5,000 registrations are fraudulent, there must be 25,000 citizens who had the right to register, but failed to exercise it, and who have thus tempted the ballot-box stuffer with inviting opportunity to stuff the voting lists with fraudulent registrations.

In 1884 Cleveland's vote in this city was 21,712 and Blaine's 21,135. In 1888 Cleveland's vote was 27,401 and Harrison's 33,656. It is an undisputed fact that in 1888 the Republicans were very successful in not only registering and voting their full strength, including all the venal floaters, but in voting hordes of colored "colonists," while the Democrats were inactive.

We note the same difference now, and have reason to believe that the Republican managers have registered probably more than their full voting strength, while the great majority of those who have failed to register are Democrats.

This one-sided apathy is largely due to the fact that the Democrats of this city are profoundly disgusted with the municipal work of their party, while entirely confident of its success with its State and national tickets. But it is partly due to the presence and inefficiency of a Democratic State Campaign Committee which has meddled with city politics only to make them a more disgusting muddle to local Democratic voters.

Mr. McKinley's speech was notable for its glittering generalities and careful avoidance of specific facts. He has learned by experience that honest logic is a dangerous tool when used to hew out a dishonest and illogical cause. He steers clear of everything essential to a really rational presentation of the truth and indulges only in rhetorical appeals to surface facts satisfactory to easy going minds unable or unwilling to do a little independent thinking.

Perhaps the most curious of his evasions is found in his remarks concerning free raw materials. It is true, as Mr. McKinley says, that the resources of Missouri were not developed under a revenue tariff. But he should carry his historical researches a little further back. They were not developed under the rule of the French, Spanish or Indians. To an honest minded man, really bent on getting at the truth, it is clear that something other than legislation is at the bottom of Missouri's prosperity.

The coal and iron mines have been opened because population has grown from nothing to 70,000,000 and people need coal and iron. To say that Missouri's mineral wealth is unearthened in Missouri is to legislative mandate is to imply that the American people are unable to take advantage of their own natural wealth without Government help, which is to rate them lower in energy and intelligence than any other people on earth.

He is equally disingenuous in his reference to steel rails. Before 1867 steel rails were worth $160 a ton. Now they are sold for $30 or $35, and Mr. McKinley implies, though he dares not plainly say, that the cheapening is the result of the protective policy. But the iron and steel works have not been taxed for 18 years.

ALTHOUGH Republican politicians and newspapers insisted that the defection of Gresham and Cooley would not have any effect upon voters, they all were strenuous in denying that the two jurists had abandoned their old party. In Gresham's case they were soon silenced and now Judge Cooley authorizes a confirmation of the story that he will vote for Cleveland. There is nothing left now except to belittle the "traitors," which will be done with scurrilous zeal.

COL. STONE has sufficiently vaunted Maj. Warner's wonderful friendship for the laboring man which actually led him to express the opinion that he should get enough wages for an honest day's labor to keep himself and his family in food and clothes. Maj. Warner should now show his love for the protected millionaires whose privilege of taxing these poor earnings of the laboring man he voted to sustain.

WAYNE MACVEAGH insists that the issue this year is a moral one and he proposes to keep it before the people. That there should be any morality in politics is an idea very shocking to statesmen who think that purity in public life is an iridescent dream and who maintain that the only end proposed by a politician is success.

THE New York Tribune is accusing the New York Democrats of circulating a "choice bit of falsehood." If the Democrats of New York have anything that will compete with the whoppers to which the Tribune has given circulation, they are very energetic and ingenious politicians.

JOHN P. REA of Minneapolis, ex-Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, a heretic strong Republican, has come out for Cleveland. He made a special investigation of Cleveland's pension rates and finds in them everything to praise and nothing to blame. There is no ray of comfort for the Republicans in this item.

ESTIMATES of the vote in Kansas vary from a fusion majority of 37,000 to a Republican majority of 45,000. It all depends upon the staying qualities of the farmers who carried the State in 1880. If they are not swayed by every wind of doctrine the State is safe for anti-Harrison electors. The People's party leaders are very sure of their poll.

It is true that Mr. Blaine is going to devote himself to literary pursuits but there is no truth in the report that he has become a Roman Catholic.

Committeeman Kerens at Home to Help
Maj. Warner.

BOODLE ALREADY USED AND MORE IS COMING TO THE WORKERS.

State Leaders to Trade Everything to Secure Votes for Warner-Harrison Electors and State Candidates to Suffer
—Plans Already Made to Raise Funds
—Board of Revision—Political Matters

National Committeeman R. C. Kerens is back from New York, where he spent some five weeks directing the movement to capture the Irish vote for Harrison. He is back to leave nothing undone to elect Warner Governor of Missouri. If he succeeds he will attain the goal of his ambition, which is to be considered one of the most powerful factors in the National Committee. In his plan to secure the support of the Irish-American element Committeeman Kerens gave much encouragement to the scheme to put Irish orators on the stump. This is how Thomas Mc-Shee of Ohio happened to be one of the principal speakers in the McKinley training, when many professed Irish law abiding men who had a rich brogue and a fine command of language. He is expected to-morrow.

A Warner Wager.

There was quite an excitement among politicians on the Merchants' Exchange to-day, occasioned by the appearance of Col. D. P.
Dyer with a commission to make a bet. Col.
Dyer stated that a friend of his would be on the floor who wished to wager $1,000 that every city in the State of more than 10,000 people would vote for Warner.
A number of Democrats expressed a willingness to take the bet, but Col. Dyer's friend failed to materialize. He is expected to-morrow.

WEATHER PREDICTION.

Some Terms That Are Often Misunderstood.

Committeeman Kerens, however, has come to the conclusion that he can be of more service here than he can in New York and he is here to help Warner, Bothwell, Blake, Tom Niedringhaus and the rest of the leaders to run the machine, and incidentally to help the Irish-American element.
In the bocce meeting held in the Mercantile Club four years ago, when the slush fund was raised to help Harrison, Committeeman Kerens was a factor to the tune of $2,000. While he was in New York during the summer he was in the City Central Committee of this city received $6,000 for its naturalization and registration fund, and the committee is still drawing on the balance. Checks with his name attached have been handed in freely or late by city committees and workers.

It was ascertained to-day on good authority that the same tactics employed in the past will be repeated in the autumn.
Where the "fund" is to be used will depend largely on the judgment of Kerens. He is a strong believer in the idea that the workers should be the ones to pay it for the Missouri workers. It has already been shown that Republican bosses are the ones who would be most willing and left for Warner support.
They have no idea of carrying the state for Harrison or anybody else on the ticket outside of the workers. The workers are all the other candidates on the state ticket and all the other candidates on the state ticket.

Filing the Counties.

Maj. Harvey W. Salmon of the State Democratic Executive Committee never put in a busier day in his life than he did to-day. He was in the headquarters at 7 o'clock this morning with two telegraphers and received an immense stack of letters, besides going over the preliminary political books sent in from fifteen counties. The polk-books come under the heading of excellent papers and are closely guarded by Secretary Farnum. Col. Coe, after looking at the figures Maj. Salmon smiled and said he was very well pleased with the shape, "he said, "and now we look to St.
Louis and Kansas City to swell the majority."

Bittinger Is Confident.

Maj. J. L. Bittinger of St. Joseph, a member of the Republican State Executive Committee, is another leader who believes that Warner is going to carry the State. He accompanied the McKinley special all the way from St. Joseph to Kansas City, Leavenworth and St. Louis to determine what he could do to help the party in make any speech. He was at the Republican headquarters on Fourth street this morning and reported that the party in Northwest Missouri was well organized. He cares that his section could take good care of Warner and would do its share to wards heading off Col. Stone.

Central Missouri Republican.

Col. C. Bell of Booneville is here to-day in conference with the State Republican Committee. He is one of the leaders in Central Missouri and is anxious of the election of Warner. He has made arrangements to exploit the Central Missouri counties to increase their vote fully 25 per cent at the coming election. "I have lived in Missouri before I have seen such enthusiasm as is shown in that middle part of this big State for a long time. The Republicans in Cooper County are all satisfied that Maj.
Warner will be the next Governor."

Gov. Johnson Will Not Serve.

The name of Charles P. Johnson will appear on the official ballot election day as the candidate of the People's party for Circuit Attorney. When Frank L. Hickey brought the People's party ticket into Recorder Carlisle's office, with this name on it, the Recorder looked surprised and asked him, "What is the Governor run?" he asked.

"I understand that he will," replied Mr.
Hickey. "At any rate he's the nominee of the ticket."

"I was surprised," said he, "when Mr. Owen Miller came to me and told me that I was the candidate of the People's party. I told him that I felt very much complimented, but that under the circumstances accept the nomination.
Nevertheless, they nominated me, and when

LIVE STOCK.

Union Stock Yards.

Oct. 26, 12 p.m.

Cattle—There were about twenty-two additional carcasses received in the native division to-day.

The bulk of the stuff was classed as fair, but there were not many choice cattle to be had. The cattle were fair to good, and the prices were 10 cents higher on all grades than yesterday.

This makes a rise in the market.

Native cattle and hogs were active.

Native cows and heifers were sold in large numbers.

Red and black cattle were in fair condition, and only a few bunches were disposed of during the forenoon.

MILBANK DEAD

The Victor in a Score of Duels Dies in His Bed.

He Was the Fighting Friend of H. Allson Borrowes

IN HIS NOTED CONTROVERSY WITH COLEMAN DRAYTON.

Two Meetings on the Field of Honor Which Grew Out of the Great Scandal in Which an Astor Was the Central Figure—Recollections of an Event Which All the World Talked About—Milbank's Record With Sword and Pistol.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—It is announced to-day that Harry Vane Milbank, the duelist, died on Monday. Mr. Milbank died at Bayswater-Platz, the capital of the district of that name in the canton of Grisons, Switzerland. The place is a favorite summer and winter resort.

For years Milbank has enjoyed the reputation of a duelist, but he gained his greatest notoriety through his connection with the Drayton-Borrowes scandal, which is still fresh in the minds of newspaper readers of the two continents. He was drawn into this by his friendship for Borrowes and out of that affair he confrontrated over and over again with the French duelist, De Moray, came a fighting near Ostend, Belgium. In April last, between Milbank and a man whose identity has never been disclosed, but who at the time was erroneously supposed to be De Moray. In this affair Milbank was unscathed, but a bullet from his pistol lodged in his antagonist's thigh.

Milbank was an Englishman by birth, but he had resided on the continent the greater part of his life. He was educated at the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, and afterward joined the Blues. With his regiment he passed through the war in the South and the present rebellion, with the rank of Captain. Stewart when he was killed, his principal other occupation has been to spend money and fight duels. He has owned racing stables in the United States and England, and for five days, the women, believing the plunging and rolling of the vessel and the roar of the waves breaking upon the deck meant her certain destruction.

The Arizona left Liverpool on Oct. 20, Oct. 6. She had hardly got out of sight of land when she ran into a terrific hurricane. Captain Brown reduced the storm-laden liner to the vessel's speed, keeping her on course. The sea ran higher than the vessel's spars, and soon the match was made. Then came the engagement of Mr. George Tibball of 123 Clymer street to Miss Carrie Homan, the couple at the opening of the Washington Hotel, some time ago. Little Gertie introduced him to Miss Carrie. From that moment he was a persistent wooer.

The most romantic of all, however, is the story of Miss Ida Homann's courtship and engagement to the handsome Col. J. Kennedy of the 10th Cavalry. She ran into him on the Cunard Liner. Captain K. H. Stout, who was on board, said that on Oct. 19 he ran into the same hurricane, blowing from east northeast, with an instantaneous wind and wave higher. The ship was held until just sufficient speed was made to keep the steamer's head to the wind and sea. The steamer Larby from Amsterdam barely escaped the same fate, while the steamer Leda from the south report only moderate winds and weather.

The New York Line steamer Majestic from New York arrived at Queenstown this morning. A heavy eastern gale was blowing and the sea was very high. The wind was from the east northeast, with an instantaneous wind and wave higher. The ship was held until just sufficient speed was made to keep the steamer's head to the wind and sea. The steamer Larby from Amsterdam barely escaped the same fate, while the steamer Leda from the south report only moderate winds and weather.

One of the lawyer's letters reached Gertie's mother, Mrs. John Homan, in New York, and she was greatly distressed.

Mr. John Homan, a son of the deceased and grandfather of Harry, who married the daughter of the first Duke of Cleveland. His sister is the wife of Count Kielst von Los, a German nobleman. He is a brother-in-law of the Duke of Hamilton.

When Nature

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Migs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

water that a duel would be fought during the voyage, and all New York society was on the raged edge of expectancy until the steamer reached the ship or on shore after the duelists landed. The correspondence between the parties in Europe had been made public by one of the papers of the city of Paris. This fact led to bad feelings between the two men, and after the return of Borrowes to England in March last, he and Drayton living in London, while his wife is residing with her mother on the Continent. The public has not been taken into their confidence, and it is not known just what relations now exist between husband and wife.

OCTOBER GALES

Every Incoming Ship Shows Evidence o

Bough Weather.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—That the October gales are blowing unduly furious this season and straining the Northern Atlantic Ocean with violence is attested by the masters of incoming steamers and sailing vessels. Every vessel, unostentatious and sailing vessels, of desperate battles with tremendous seas and hurricanes. Several big passenger steamers which arrived yesterday ran into the hurricanes which nearly swamped the La Florida. The steamer from Liverpool which brought ninety saloons and 332 second cabin passengers; the North German Lloyd steamer from Hamburg, with 130 cabin passengers; the Netherlands steamer from Rotterdam with no passengers; the labas of the Spanish Line and the Italian steamer Neptune. The arrival of the Neptune from Liverpool on Tuesday, the women, believing the plunging and rolling of the vessel and the roar of the waves breaking upon the deck meant her certain destruction.

Little Gertie introduced him to Miss Carrie. From that moment he was a persistent wooer.

The most romantic of all, however, is the story of Miss Ida Homann's courtship and engagement to the handsome Col. J. Kennedy of the 10th Cavalry.

The courtship of Col. stout and Miss Ida was literally a long-distance one. J. Kennedy stably lived in New York once, and for a time was a reporter on the "Tribune." Then he was a reporter on the "Daily News" and found it. He is reported to be worth a round half-million, and this year the Democrats of New York nominated him for Lieutenant-Governor, which he refused. He is a lawyer, part owner of the Spokane "Spokesman" and writes the dramatic criticisms for that paper.

An Englishman's Interesting View of the American Turf.

THE AMERICAN JOCKEY REGARDED AS AN ABSOLUTE ABOMINATION.

A Good Suggestion for a Board of Appeal

—Coney Island Athletic Club After Hall and Fitzsimmons—Hall Will Fight in April—Gossip From the World of Sport.

Certain Englishmen, who have visited this country, who are hard-headed, practical racing men, and who put sentiment in the background when it is a question of pounds, shillings or pence, say that the racing they have witnessed in this country is up to the highest standard of English racing. They add that the equipments of a well-equipped American race track are superior to the best in England. They add that the horses compare favorably with the English product. According to a Gotham turf authority, one of the visiting Englishmen discussed the matter recently as follows: "It seems to me that there is nothing in England that the Americans want in the racing line except a few highly bred stallions that are good individuals and have shown their ability to stand the severe preparation for the first-class stakes and to win some of them. Now, in regard to the maternal line, the mares American breeders should select should be gift-edited in their breeding, and their soundness should be undoubtful. The results that would be derived from such importations would have a marked effect on the American horses in a very few years. The mere handful of American horses that have raced in England and on the Continent have established the fact that our country is about the right place to raise and train to compete with the horses away. Jockeys grow insolent and defiantly disobey orders, and finally they went away spread-eagled and on the left at the post. The result, however, proved good enough to come through and win.

LOUIS YESTERDAY. The majority of the finishes were finely drawn, affording the speculators in attendance plenty to enthuse over. Two favorites were successful and three were defeated. The summary follows:

First race, selling, six furlongs—Rattler, first; Jack the Ripper, second; Rich Guy, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

Second race, selling, six furlongs—Franco, first; Minnesota, second; Tropic, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

Third race, selling, six furlongs—Avon O'Or, first; Silverman, second; Black Beauty, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

Fourth race, handicap, three-quarters of a mile—Frankie D., first; Frostbit, second; St. Paul, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

Fifth race, selling, six furlongs—Virgin, first; Jack White, second; Bob Lyle, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

AT GUTTENBERG.

The races run over the North Bergen course yesterday resulted as follows:

First race, five furlongs—Vocalis, first; Joe, second; Minnow Fly, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

Second race, one mile—Seven, first; Jack Rose, second; Mabel E. Pomeroy, third. Time, 1:14 1/2.

Third race, one mile—Tropic, first; Elizabeth, second; Woodshooper, third. Time, 1:12 1/2.

Fourth race, six furlongs—One, first; Caledonia, second; Mahomed, third. Time, 1:17 1/2.

Fifth race, seven furlongs—Lester, first; Ben, second; Bob L., third. Time, 1:20 1/2.

AT WASHINGTON.

The races run over the Capital City course yesterday resulted as follows:

First race, six furlongs—Willie won; Anna, second; Bob Toombs, third. Time, 1:17 1/2.

Second race, one mile—Eliz., first; Anna, third. Time, 1:44 1/2.

Third race, one mile and an eighth—Coquette won; Bob L., second; Interior, third. Time, 1:56.

Fourth race, six furlongs—Miss Herndon won; Desilete, second; Destroy, third. Time, 1:20 1/2.

Sixth race, six furlongs—Postponed until 1:30 p.m.

A SAMPLE OF UNSUCCESSFUL STARTING.

The first three races at Lexington yesterday were reeled in short order, but in the fourth Trainer Hardy Darham, who took Starter Ferguson's place, lost his head and all control of his jockeys and horses, and the spectators hooting, hissing and stamping in the grand stand, were kept waiting over an hour in the rapidly approaching darkness and cold of the evening and treated to a tumultuous and noisy scene beyond the track. The horses away. Jockeys grew insolent and defiantly disobeyed orders, and finally they went away spread-eagled and on the left at the post. The result, however, proved good enough to come through and win.

TRACK TALK.

Morello, the winner of the Futurity, will be raced in Chicago next year.

Frankie Jordan rode Content to victory in the closing race at Hawthorne yesterday.

Fillie, Senorita, Coquette, Tee Mike and Myrtle were the winners at Lexington yesterday.

Piccolo, McMurry, St. Albans, Gov. Fifer and Content were the winners at Hawthorne yesterday.

W. J. Little, Little Alice, King Idle, Pelham, Shire and Bob Arthur were the winners at Gloucester yesterday.

The brother to Tyrant, by Great Tom, dam Morello, belonged to the Ebret stable. They were all near a horse, and when they whip or try to ride a finish it puts one in a nose until they have passed the finishing post. I have seen more whipping and roweling in one day here than you would see at Newmarket in a season.

There is a good deal of racing in England that could well be adapted to American racing. One is to select three of the gentlemen that compose the Board of Control, who should act as stewards for the final settlement of all turf problems, as under your present system a person accused of wrong-doing has not appeal. The stewards should be selected with great care, and should not own or race horses or bet on horses, as in either case a man's judgment is almost sure to be biased. If a man has a bet on a horse, and that man is in a position to decide the placing of the horse, he will not be in a position to do so, he will be likely to do so in a sense of honor, because of having bet on one of the contestants, to decide against the animal that he has bet on. The same may be applied to any other case that would come up in which he has an interest, and for that reason need without a doubt, the only love of the greatest sport on earth, should be selected to act as stewards.

THE MASTER OF HAWTHORNE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—ED CORRIGAN is not at all disengaged over the decision of Judge Glidewell, who declared that Huron had no right to start in the Futurity of 1892. He has made up his mind to fight the Coney Island Jockey Club and the Board of Control to the bitter end. His attorneys telephoned that the Supreme Court's ruling only passed upon Judge Adam's right to issue the man-dates, and that the trial of the Huron case, as well as the trial of the Horse case, are the mandamus suit against the Coney Island Club. To a friend in the East, we advised Corrigan to let the Board of Control to the end that his colors might be free to show on the courses about New York. Corrigan telegraphed that he proposed to stand by him now, but that the states which cannot race at their track, but how it is allowed to have a body race horses under their own rules. The master of Hawthorne is about to attack the legality of the actions of the board and the life of the body itself. Not only that, but Corrigan intends to stand by him in the case of the lives pool law, the very breath of racing in New York State. Corrigan is undoubtedly in earnest in his fight for his rights.

Just how Corrigan intends to push the matter with the Huron case for a basis is not clear, but the principle of the facts are both against him. The court rendered its decision as follows: First, that Corrigan never acquired the engagement to start Huron; second, with which he is in the master and the court will not interfere with their decision. Third, on the facts of the case the decision of the executive committee was right.

This looks like a clear sweeping of the ground, and Corrigan's decision in the direction of what is right to the racing world, as it stamps with the seal of judicial approval the claim that the Board of Racing Stewards, as a jockey club, are the supreme arbiters of most all places of racing, and the decision by their deed of incorporation and that their decisions in such matters are free from control by the master of Hawthorne. In attempting to overturn this decision is striving to pull down the entire racing structure. Fortunately he is not a Sampson.

WORLD'S FAIR RACING.

Unless the indications are all wrong, then next year will witness some remarkable racing in Chicago, and the hoop-beats of the bang-tails will make merry music almost constantly from very early in the spring until after the snow begins to fly—from May until December, says Hyde. All, Robey, Washington Park, Garfield Park and Hawthorne will be in full swing, and owners will flock here not only from all parts of the country, but from all over the world. As to the eight stakes of the Washington Park Club, which will close Oct. 15, may be taken as a certainty. These figures are as follows:

World's fair stakes for 1892 381
World's fair stakes for 1893 288
Kentucky stakes for 1893 156
Doubtless stakes for 1893 164
American Derby for 1892 267
Queen Isabella stakes for 1894 181
Queen Isabella stakes for 1895 154
Total 1,720

To these must be added the entries to the Derby, Queen Isabella and Sheridan to be run next year, which closed last fall with a total of 700, and the astounding total of 2,429 entries shown for the races to be run in 1893. It will be apt to make the officials of some of the big Eastern racing associations turn green with envy. The entries to the all-weather track will be double these figures, and some lucky horse owners will have money enough next year to taste oysters and champagne all of the following winter.

Billy Wilson, who was beaten in two rounds in California by Joe Choynski, is anxious to arrange a match with Joe Lannon.

Edgar Gallagher says he will not fight in the ring again, as he regards the place as a hoodoo for him.

second, with which he is in the master and the court will not interfere with their decision. Third, on the facts of the case the decision of the executive committee was right.

This looks like a clear sweeping of the ground, and Corrigan's decision in the direction of what is right to the racing world, as it stamps with the seal of judicial approval the claim that the Board of Racing Stewards, as a jockey club, are the supreme arbiters of most all places of racing, and the decision by their deed of incorporation and that their decisions in such matters are free from control by the master of Hawthorne. In attempting to overturn this decision is striving to pull down the entire racing structure. Fortunately he is not a Sampson.

WORLD'S FAIR RACING.

Unless the indications are all wrong, then next year will witness some remarkable racing in Chicago, and the hoop-beats of the bang-tails will make merry music almost constantly from very early in the spring until after the snow begins to fly—from May until December, says Hyde. All, Robey, Washington Park, Garfield Park and Hawthorne will be in full swing, and owners will flock here not only from all parts of the country, but from all over the world. As to the eight stakes of the Washington Park Club, which will close Oct. 15, may be taken as a certainty. These figures are as follows:

World's fair stakes for 1892 381
World's fair stakes for 1893 288
Kentucky stakes for 1893 156
Doubtless stakes for 1893 164
American Derby for 1892 267
Queen Isabella stakes for 1894 181
Queen Isabella stakes for 1895 154
Total 1,720

To these must be added the entries to the Derby, Queen Isabella and Sheridan to be run next year, which closed last fall with a total of 700
